

Steve Elliott

Managing Director, Real Estate Development
Stanford University – Land, Buildings & Real Estate

Steve Elliott joined Stanford University in August 2005 and has been responsible for developments including the Rosewood Hotel & Office Development in Menlo Park, new Stanford Faculty Housing developments, and the Stanford in Redwood City campus. Prior to joining Stanford, Steve was Senior Vice President of Investments and Portfolio Management at GIC Real Estate, Inc., the real estate investment arm of the Government of Singapore. Steve was also with William Wilson & Associates and Aetna Real Estate Investments. Steve received his B.A. in Economics and Business from UCLA and his MBA from the Yale School of Management.