

Dan Rosenbaum
Senior Vice President, Meridian

Dan Rosenbaum is responsible for all aspects of acquisition, management and development of office properties in Northern California.

Previously, Dan served as senior vice president at Nearon Enterprises of Walnut Creek, California, for nearly 13 years, where he specialized in the acquisition, development, management and disposition of office, industrial and retail properties. Prior to Nearon, he spent seven years as executive vice president at South Bay Development Company of Campbell, California.

Rosenbaum also has experience on the finance side having spent 10 years as a construction lender at Union Bank and Comerica Bank. He was the president of the Silicon Valley Chapter of NAIOP in 2007 and again in 2015.